GRADUATE STUDENT PEER SUPPORT GROUP

Sometimes life is up the hill and we are here to help!

Surviving gradschool

Have you ever wondered how others juggle the many demands of grad school? Maybe you are experiencing an issue with your adviser, dissertation committee, etc., but aren't sure who you can talk to. Or maybe you just feel like connecting with fellow graduate students.

We welcome you

Whatever the reason, we welcome you to join us for our supportive discussion group for graduate students! It is open and free for any and all graduate students and there is no time commitment - come as often as you like. Topics may include achieving a work-life balance, research and teaching demands, adviser issues, etc. Although two of us will be facilitating to create a safe space, this will be an informal support group; not official group therapy.

Questions? Don't be shy! Email us:

nancy.robinson@ttu.edu
jacqueline.caston@ttu.edu

How, when, and where?

If you are interested in attending, or have any questions about the group, please feel free to email: Nancy (nancy.robinson@ttu.edu) or Jackie (jacqueline.caston@ttu.edu).

- ✓ Spring 2016 meetings start on Feb. 3rd
- ✓ When: Wednesdays 5:15pm-6:15pm
- ✓ Where: At the Graduate Center
- ✓ Administration Bldg., West Basement
- ✓ Refreshments will be served

Jackie is a graduate student and groups' co-leader.
